

DECORATION DAY RACE.

One of the Big Bicycle Racing Events of the Season.

THE INTELLIGENCER ROAD RACE

To be Run from West Alexander to Wheeling on the National Pike. Riders of the Tri-State Radius Eligible for Entrance—The Road Race Winners and the Relay Race—Bicycle News.

For the great relay bicycle race from Washington City to Denver which will pass through Wheeling early in August, the best local riders of the silent steed, having qualifications of both speed and endurance, are wanted to take up the relays between West Alexander, Pa., and Cambridge, Ohio. In order to determine who are the best men for the relays, it has been suggested that a road race be run, and those who make the best time be picked out for that purpose. The INTELLIGENCER will conduct such a race on Decoration Day, May 30, and Chief Counsel Jason C. Stamp, has said he will be in part governed by the result of this contest.

The race will probably be from West Alexander to the city, a distance of sixteen miles, or from the city to West Alexander and return, thirty-two miles, over the national pike, which is expected at the time mentioned to be in excellent shape for a record breaking race. There will be a number of prizes, including, if Chairman Raymond, of the L. A. W. road race, allows it, a $150 light roadster racing safety, 1894 model, and up to date in every particular. A recent ruling of the racing board is that races in which class A amateurs compete, the prize shall not be over $50 in value. It is expected that a special dispensation in this case can be obtained, so that the racing safety can be given as first prize.

The race will be open to class A amateurs in West Virginia, Eastern Ohio, and Western Pennsylvania. Already several entries have been made, including several Pittsburgh riders. A handicap committee will be named, made up of Wheeling wheelmen, who will place the strong riders at scratch, and give those riders who enter who are not so fast on the silent steed, sufficient start to even matters up and make the race an exciting one. Entry blanks will be out in a few days, which will be on hand at all of the local bicycle stores and at the INTELLIGENCER office. Entries will close May 20 at noon. Out of town riders wishing to enter should apply to this paper for entry blanks.

The corps of officials for the race has not yet been selected, but will be composed of well known Wheeling gentlemen.

McCarthy is a phewellman an' the devil a thing he'll do
But ride like sixty at a pace he sez is 22.
Be jabber an' ye'd see him with his dirty little cap.
Ye'd never want to lift your hand to do another cap.
He's chasin' on the bullyard from daylight until dark.
An' neither he spuds the night in racin' thro' the park.
He rings his bell and sez, sez he, "Look out there, clear the way!"
An' never stops to bid a decent man the time o' day.

CHORUS.
But I'll hit him on the nut;
I'll knock him on the nut;
McCarthy needn't think he runs the town,
I'll break his lumpy back,
An' his ugly nut I'll crack,
Ye can bet yere life I'll throw McCarthy down.

It was only Monday night when I wor comin' from me work
The blaggar sez to me, sez he, "Get out o' that you Turk!"
He blew a whistle in me face and whistled—like that was gone
Before I'd time to blow me nose—the dirty amild hawl!
I hate McCarthy an' I hate his new pomarine phueel
Wid his sprockets an' his rockets an' rubber an' his slatol.
Begor I'd thrate myself av he were murdered in his bed;
An' I'd sing the hallenlah at his wake whin he wor dead.

CHORUS.—But I'll hit him, etc.
He sez he's thairning for a race on Decoration Day;
Be Hevin'k, I'd thrain him wid a club av I cud have me way;
He have his legs dressed up in tights like Vanns on the stage,
An' he bumps his back and ducks his nut like a monkey in a race;
The gang that be do have wid him he sez is from the club;
They run me over in the althreet and say, "Look out you Turk!"
I've seen the devils in Connaught but headed amous 'em all
There isn't a one that's got the like o' that McCarty's gill.
CHORUS.—But I'll hit him, etc.

CALUMETS OUT OF IT.

By Losing Two to Columbia Lose Their Chance For Fourth.

Last evening the Columbia and Calumet teams, of the bowling league, played two games at Wheeling Park, and the latter by losing both contests is out of the race for fourth place, which now rests between the W. A. W. and Intelligencer teams.

In the first game Columbia led for five frames, when Calumet led for one, then Columbia forged ahead again and was never headed. No very remarkable scores were made in the game, except Bishop's 254. The score:

THE ALDINE CLUB.

A Meeting Held Last Evening—Plans of the New Club.

Last evening the newly organized athletic organization, the Aldine Club, which will also make a specialty of the social side of athletics, held a meeting which was attended by twenty members. The discussion was regarding a club house for the organization; several locations were talked of, but none decided upon. The club has applications from thirty-three persons for membership and from the way it starts off will be one of the best athletic and social organizations here. A committee on club house composed of John W. Herbert, Will Miller and E. L. Frano was appointed, who will decide upon a location and report at a meeting to be held next Friday evening. A committee on by-laws was appointed. The election of officers will also take place at the next meeting.

Mozart's Alley.
The Mozart bowling alley building is going to be a very fine structure. Architecturally speaking it is very imposing. A long tier of steps leads to the entrance. On the lower floor will be a billiard and pool room, and on the second floor are located the eight bowling alleys—four regulation size and four of the ordinary narrow Wheeling style. The building is 50 by 130 feet in size and will cost $8,000.

FOUND THE MONEY.
Mrs. Moore Points Out the Hiding Place of Her Fraudulent Pension Fund.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.
HUNTINGTON, W. Va., March 23.—Deputy United States Marshal Cole returned this afternoon with Margaret Moore, with whom he went a few days ago to Kanawha county to obtain the money that the woman had fraudulently obtained from the government as a pension. She said that the money was buried there. The marshal and woman went into the edge of Allegheny county, and at a point that was far distant from any habitation, the woman showed him the place where she had buried the money, and upon digging down, Cole found eight hundred dollars, which he has now in his possession, and which will be turned over to the government. This shows splendid work on the part of Cole. Mrs. Moore was placed in jail again.

Will Sign American Players.

HUFFALO, N. Y., March 23.—Manager Chapman, of the Buffalo base ball club, says that he will not import the Canadian players, Johnson and McNeill, since the question of contract labor had been raised. He looks upon the alleged objection as ridiculous, but rather than take an appeal to the courts, which would be expensive and unprofitable, he will sign American players instead.

Inventor Baker Dead.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 23.—George C. Baker, the inventor of the submarine torpedo boat, died in this city this afternoon. Mr. Baker had been broken down in health for some time and on Wednesday last underwent an operation for appendicitis from which he did not recover. The deceased was about fifty years of age. His remains will be taken to Des Moines, Iowa, his former home.

A Revolutionary Pensioner.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 23.—The President has approved the bill granting a pension to Hannah Lyons, ninety-one years of age, daughter of John Russell, the revolutionary soldier whose statue stands on guard at Trenton battle monument.

An Inquiry About Tuberculosis.

To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

Sir:—I would like the privilege of asking through your paper of the veterinary surgeon giving information in your issue of March 13 concerning tuberculosis existing in dairy herds which furnish milk for this city, if he is able to state to what extent the disease is prevalent in this vicinity. There are about 100 different herds that furnish milk for the city, and it is hardly just that all should be under this accusation, unless all are infected.

For myself, I furnish milk for a goodly number of inhabitants of the city and get my milk from herds owned by the following named four persons: Henry Taylor, Fairpoint, Ohio; Calvin Pollack, Laterville, Ohio; Benjamin Lewis, St. Clairsville, Ohio, and B. C. Humphrey, St. Clairsville, Ohio, and I am very positive that all the cattle of these herds are perfectly healthy and free from disease, so far as any ordinary man can say, and I would like this gentleman to state if he knows anything to the contrary. I also wish to ask if he knows of a single case of that disease existing on an animal other than of the Jersey breed.

MARTIN'S FERRY.

Haps and Mishaps in the Thriving City Across the River.

Yesterday morning Miss Kate Ralston had an exciting experience and narrow escape from serious injury in front of her home on Fourth street. A horse attached to a milk wagon and belonging to Isaac Griffin, was tied to the hitching post, and became fastened in an uncomfortable position. Miss Ralston saw this and tried to extricate the animal, then it made a plunge at her and broke the hitching post, following her, she ran over against the fence and still the horse followed her, pinning her to the fence. She succeeded in dropping to the pavement and after rolling over once or twice sprang to her feet and ran down the pavement and into the residence of her sister Mrs. Robert R. Kerr. The horse followed her down the pavement and made a frantic effort to bite her, as it did several times before. Miss Ralston's right shoulder was hurt, but she was not injured in any other way. She was very much frightened and it is no wonder. The performance was the strangest ever witnessed on the street.

Joseph H. Chambers, esp., is nearing death's door at his residence on Broadway. He has a cancer in his face and consumption. Mr. Chambers is an old resident of Martin's Ferry, and one of the oldest readers of the INTELLIGENCER. He is a ship carpenter by trade and has worked at this for nearly fifty years. He is the father of William and Harry Chambers, and Mrs. William Rothermund and Mrs. John F. Benzle.

Yesterday at Bridgeport Judge Driggs heard arguments in the Fifth street injunction case and will give his decision the early part of next week. The plaintiff seeks to modify the injunction in such a way as to let the property held.

The dinner given by Capt. H. W. Smith yesterday in honor of his eighty-third birthday was greatly enjoyed by the old men.

The breakdown mill at the Etta-Standard is off on account of a shortage of steel.

Last night Will Dawson entertained a party of friends at his home, on Fifth street.

To-morrow will be the last Sunday for the Y. M. C. A. in the present quarters. The Martin's Ferry schools will be closed from March 30 to April 9.

Gen. D. A. Hollingsworth, of Cadiz, was in Martin's Ferry yesterday.

Union exercises were held in the high school yesterday afternoon.

L. F. Oxley, of Pittsburgh, is in town among old friends.

J. T. Hanes was at Pittsburgh yesterday on business.

MOUNDSVILLE.

A Miscellaneous Melange of Minor Matters from Marshall's Metropolis.

Concrete curbing is being put in on Second street. This is something new here, but has been used very extensively and successfully through the west. The city council has let a contract to Mr. Pierson for 500 feet of it as a test at 30 cents per linear foot. It makes a much neater curbing than sand stone, which costs from 40 to 50 cents per foot. It is claimed to be as hard as any stone after two weeks setting, but it keeps curing for six weeks, when it becomes harder than stone. Should the test prove satisfactory it will no doubt be used here all together. It is not known what effect the frost will have on it.

Company B will give a paragonage "poverty" social at the residence of John Chapman next Monday evening. It promises to be the most interesting affair of the season. A large crowd is expected to turn out dressed in a poverty-stricken way. Every one will be fined who dresses in good clothes. Other fines will be imposed for different offenses. A lunch will be served, and prizes will be given to the most comically dressed one.

The experience social and supper given by Company A at the home of the president, Mrs. F. H. Blake, on Thursday evening, was very amusing and entertaining. Miss Mary Scott rendered a very beautiful and touching declamation. A splendid supper was given before the relating of the members' experiences.

The hearing of the case of the State vs. John Greer for shooting at Officer McGill, in the circuit court occupied two days and finally went to the jury yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock. The jury was out about three hours when they brought in a verdict of not guilty. Capt. B. E. Donovan was his counsel.

Joseph Manning was elected street commissioner for the coming year, at the last city council meeting. Seventh street was ordered graded and curbed from Lafayette avenue to the Baltimore & Ohio tracks.

Clerk of the County Court E. M. Lewis yesterday issued a certificate of incorporation to Little Prince Lodge No. 79, K. of P., of Moundsville.

Mrs. Dallas, a widow aged eighty-three years, living with her daughter in the Third ward, died Wednesday and was buried Thursday.

Edwards & Dorsey have sold their planing mill to Hess & McMullen. The new firm will take charge and begin business April 1.

J. F. Burley & Bro. have finished laying out an addition of fifteen lots on Western avenue for Gatts & Gray.

Harry W. Patton is home from Morgantown university on a vacation.

Thomas Gatts is confined to his room by sickness.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup has always been kept up to the standard. It is the same it was forty years ago, the best sold.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her, and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thomas Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at Logan Drug Co.'s drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.
